Did you see it? On the green carpet and on stage at the Earthshot Prize in Cape Town, the future King was sporting our HEVEA white/gum shoes. And what a beautiful surprise it was.

Heres Proof:

The Earthshot Prize is a big deal. It's a global competition that aims to fight our greatest challenge: to regenerate the place we all call home.

Our fantastic partners who provide the upper and sole for the HEVEA, Natural Fiber Welding, were one of fifteen world-changing companies nominated.

It's already massive they were in Cape Town with the Prince. It's also massive that our HEVEA shoes were on his feet, surrounded by so many inspirational sustainability pioneers.

But we'll tell you a secret. There's not many pairs left.

So if you want to sport the same style as one of sustainability's great supporters, now is the time to jump.

You can buy Prince William's Hevea White / Gum style below.
